

Diversity

There is no right or wrong for common courtesy All we can do is gather our curiosity
Change the course of history
All who want to believe
All who live and breathe
All races including you
We shall treat others equally
Where is the equality between us
It's right in front of you
This goes for all of us
So please, don't show your folly
Be the ally, not the enemy
Show equality to all you meet
Now let's remove all this Diversity
