

Diversity

Diversity. What an amazing thing.
Although sometimes misused
And even abused
You are all queens and kings.
Respect and love your color
For it is a beautiful trait.
You are gifted
Because you are beautiful inside and out.
You shouldn't want to be shifted.
If you are born different,
Don't let the negativity bring you down.
Don't let people's views change you,
Just because you are scared of them, don't let them have your frown.
No matter the place you were born,
It doesn't define who you are.
Be proud of who you are
And what you stand for.
